JURISDICTION

2 1. This court has subject matter jurisdiction over this dispute pursuant to 28 USC
3 § 1331 granting Federal district courts original jurisdiction in actions arising under the 4 Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. This dispute raises a Federal question under 5 42 USC § 1983.

VENUE

7 2. Venue is appropriate in the Central District of California, because all Defendants
8 reside in this State, in this county, and in this district. Furthermore, venue is proper in this 9 district, because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in 10 this district.

PARTIES

11
12 3. Plaintiff is an individual, currently residing in Los Angeles County, State of 13 California.

14 4. Defendant the County is and at all times herein mentioned has been a public
15 entity and a county government in the State of California duly authorized and existing as such in 16 and under the California Constitution, the laws of the State of California and the Charter of the 17 County of Los Angeles. At all times herein mentioned, the County, Cooley and Lacey 18 possessed the power and authority to adopt policies and prescribe rules, regulations and 19 practices affecting the operation of the Los Angeles County District Attorney Bureau of 20 Investigations, (the "Bureau") its employees, its tactics, methods, customs, and usages related to 21 criminal investigations, its supervision of personnel and other things.

22 5. Defendant Valdivia is and at all times herein mentioned has been an individual
23 acting under color of authority, as a Peace Officer, within the meaning of California Penal Code
24 830.1. Valdivia was an employee of the Bureau acting under Defendants the County, Cooley
25 and Lacey's direction and control, which knowingly and intentionally promulgated, maintained,
26 applied, enforced, and suffered the continuation of acts, policies, customs, practices and usages
27 in violation of the First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution

1 and the State of California's Constitution, which customs, practices, and usages at all times
 2 herein mentioned cause Plaintiff's harm.

3 6. Defendant Kauffman was at all times herein mentioned Captain of the 4 Hawthorne Police Department and an individual acting under color of authority, as a Peace
 5 Officer, within the meaning of California Penal Code section 830.1. Kauffman as a Captain was 6 a final decision maker for the City of Hawthorne knowingly and intentionally promulgated,
 7 maintained, applied, enforced, and suffered the continuation of acts, policies, customs, practices
 8 and usages in violation of the First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment to the United States
 9 Constitution and the State of California's Constitution, which customs, practices, and usages at 10 all times herein mentioned cause Plaintiff's harm.

11 7. The City is an incorporated municipal government in the County of Los Angeles, 12 the operator of the Hawthorne Police Department and the employer of Defendant Kauffman. At 13 all times herein mentioned, the County and Kauffman possessed the power and authority to 14 adopt policies and prescribe rules, regulations and practices affecting the operation of the 15 Hawthorne Police Department, (the "Department") its employees, its tactics, methods, customs,
 16 and usages related to criminal investigations, its supervision of personnel and other things.

17 GENERAL FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18 8. Plaintiff is a local investigative journalist who has covered news events and 19 produced several investigative news stories throughout the United States since 1994. He is a
 20 member of the press and has continuously possessed a valid press pass issued by the Los Angeles
 21 County Sheriff's Department.

22 9. In 2009, allegations of corruption were made against top level employees for the 23 City of Hawthorne in the State of California (the "City"). Plaintiff, as an investigative journalist, 24 became involved in investigating these allegations of political corruption.

25 10. Between 2009-2011, Plaintiff developed relationships with confidential
 26 informants working in and around the City government. Plaintiff gathered information from 27 individuals who had exclusive access to confidential information. As a result of Plaintiff's
 28 investigative journalism, Plaintiff uncovered evidence of corruption as follows:

1 a. City Manager Jag Pathirana, pressured Hawthorne Civil Service
2 Commissioners to change their vote on Police misconduct hearings;

3 b. City Manager Pathirana and Accounting Manager Louis Escobar were 4 involved in a drunken incident at the Wild Goose Strip Club in Lawndale, during which
5 Pathirana impersonated a police officer and top level Police Department employees later engaged
6 in a cover up;

7 c. The City misappropriated over 2 million dollars in HUD funds;

8 d. City employees were seen breaking into City Hall and stealing documents
9 following the termination of City Manager Pathirana;

10 e. Former Hawthorne Police Chief Michael Heffner intentionally and 11 strategically delayed opening a promotional exam for Lieutenant and Sergeant for the purpose of 12 effectively eliminating applications from disfavored employees who were off or not due back at 13 work until the application period closed.

14 11. As a result of Plaintiff's investigation, City officials determined that further 15 inquiry and interviews were necessary. In April of 2010, Interim City Manager Jim Mitch and 16 City Councilman Alex Vargas hired private investigator Ed Ortega (hereinafter "Ortega") to 17 further investigate corruption allegations against City employees. Ortega was hired as an agent of 18 OHI Services, a licensed investigation company. As a result of Plaintiff and Ortega's
19 investigation, various City employees were terminated, abruptly resigned, or were not promoted.
20 In an effort to avoid potential civil liability for Ortega's investigation, Keith Raymond, owner of 21 OHI, disowned Ortega, falsely alleged that Ortega was not an agent of OHI, and implied that 22 Ortega had been falsely impersonating Raymond.

23 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based upon that information and belief
24 alleges that Defendant Valdivia had a close personal relationship with members of the Hawthorne
25 Police Department and with City employees who had been fired, resigned or not promoted as a 26 result of Plaintiff and Ortega's disclosures. This group, including Defendant Kauffman,
27 contacted Valdivia and convinced, coerced or cajoled him into opening a criminal investigation
28 to illegally retaliate against Plaintiff and Ortega for their disclosures of corruption in the City of Hawthorne and to prevent or interfere with Plaintiff's exercise of his First Amendment rights of freedom of speech and freedom of the press.

13. On November 17, 2010, Valdivia and his partner, both armed, accosted Plaintiff in his driveway at his home. Valdivia refused to allow Plaintiff to move about, refused Plaintiff's request to speak with his lawyer and proceeded to aggressively question Plaintiff about his investigation into corruption in the City of Hawthorne. Ominously, Valdivia cautioned Plaintiff to "stay away from Hawthorne" and told him that he had "been warned." He also threatened that Plaintiff would end up being the "fall guy" for Chris Blatchford, a highly lauded investigative reporter for KTTV Fox 11. Thus, Valdivia was obviously aware that Plaintiff was acting in his capacity as an investigative journalist.

14. On or about January 18, 2011, Valdivia generated a criminal investigation against Ortega. On or about April 18, 2011, Valdivia obtained a search and arrest warrant for Ortega, and "Locations 1-5" issued by Judge Henry Hall. These five locations were various locations associated with Ortega in the City of Ridgecrest, California. On April 19, 2011, a felony criminal complaint was filed against Ortega, LASC Case No. SA077354. On April 20, 2011, Ortega was arrested, and computers, guns, and other items were seized from Locations 1-5.

15. On April 27, 2011, a purported additional search warrant for Location #6 was allegedly issued, again by Judge Hall. Location #6 was 17725 Crenshaw Blvd., Suite 304, Torrance, California. This office has been occupied by Plaintiff since 1999 as Plaintiff's office as an investigative journalist. Ortega is not associated with this address, has never done business out of this address, and has never received mail at this address.

16. On April 28, 2011, while Plaintiff was away from his office attending Ortega's arraignment, Valdivia executed the search warrant on location #6, and proceeded to search Plaintiff's office. Valdivia seized Plaintiff's computer, hard drives, and various other media recording devices. The property seized included a wealth of confidential information connected to Plaintiff's investigation into political corruption in the City of Hawthorne. A service copy of this warrant is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. A list of the items seized from Plaintiff's office is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based upon that information and belief alleges that the search warrant executed by Valdivia was NOT the search warrant issued by Judge Hall. It is Judge Hall's practice to carefully review each page of a search warrant, make interlineations limiting the scope of the search warrant, as appropriate, and then initial each and every page of the search warrant. Judge Hall followed his procedure on the search warrant for locations 1-5. He limited the items to be seized to only those items actually belonging to Ortega, and he initialed each and every page. However, the search warrant, as executed on Location #6, deviated significantly from Judge Hall's ordinary procedure. The face page of the search warrant for Location #6 appears to be signed by Judge Hall. However, the following pages were not initialed and did not contain any interlineations limiting the property to be seized to that property belonging to Ortega.

18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based upon that information and belief alleges that Valdivia sought a search warrant for Location #6 for the improper purpose of harassing Plaintiff and interfering with Plaintiff's investigation into political corruption in the City of Hawthorne. Valdivia also sought to improperly seize the property of Plaintiff, including property that contained confidential information concerning corruption in the City of Hawthorne. This harassment was intended to interfere with Plaintiff's Constitutional right of freedom of speech and freedom of the press as guaranteed in the First Amendment. However, upon issuing the search warrant for Location #6, Judge Hall's interlineations limited the search warrant to that property belonging to Ortega (just as he had modified the warrant for locations 1-5). As such, the search warrant, as actually issued and initialed by Judge Hall, would not have permitted Defendant Valdivia to seize property belonging to Plaintiff (which was the entire reason for executing a search warrant on Location #6 — Plaintiff's office). So, Valdivia, or someone working on his behalf, took the search warrant as actually issued by Judge Hall and unlawfully modified it by removing the pages with Judge Hall's initials and limiting interlineations and replacing those pages with different pages not approved of by Judge Hall. Thus, Valdivia unlawfully modified a limited search warrant issued by Judge Hall into an unlimited search warrant that would give Valdivia apparent justification for seizing Plaintiff's confidential investigative work product.

19. Plaintiff did not know and could not reasonably have known that the search warrant executed against Location #6 was unlawfully modified. A service copy of the warrant was left with the manager of the office building wherein Plaintiff's office was located. However, the original was sealed in the Ortega criminal court file. Plaintiff was not aware of Judge Hall's practice of initialing each page of a warrant and had no other reason to suspect that the search warrant had been unlawfully modified before it was executed. In fact, Valdivia intentionally concealed the fact that the warrant for Location #6 had been unlawfully modified before its execution.

20. On March 5, 2012, Plaintiff filed a motion in Ortega's criminal action for the return of his seized property. On April 25, 2012, at a hearing in connection with Plaintiff's motion, Valdivia confirmed that the Search Warrant for location #6 was sealed by order of Judge Hall but failed to disclosed that the search warrant as executed was different from the warrant as issued. On May 18, 2012, Plaintiff's motion to return property was granted in part. Some but not all of Plaintiff's seized property was returned. Valdivia still refuses to return some property, including confidential audio recordings of conversations relevant to Plaintiff's investigation of corruption in the City of Hawthorne.

21. On April 3, 2013, Ortega filed a motion to dismiss his criminal prosecution under Penal Code section 995. Finally, on January 13, 2014, Ortega's criminal case was dismissed in its entirety.

22. A few months after the dismissal of Ortega's criminal case (in February, March or April of 2014), Plaintiff obtained copies of various documents concerning Ortega's criminal prosecution. These documents happened to include a copy of the search warrant for locations 1-5, which had Judge Hall's initials and limiting interlineations.

23. On July 29, 2015, Plaintiff met with Attorney Lisa Houlé. When comparing the warrants, attorney Lisa Houlé for the first time noticed a discrepancy between the warrant for location 1-5 and the warrant for location 6. All of the pages for the warrant for locations 1-5 bore the judge's initials at the bottom right hand corner of every page and contained limiting interlineations. However, the warrant for location 6 did not have the judge's initials on the bottom right hand corner, and although substantially similar to the warrant for locations 1-5, the warrant for location 6 did not bear any of the judge's limiting interlineations.

24. On July 30, 2015, Attorney Houlé met with Judge Hall to present to him a service copy of the search warrant for location 6. Judge Hall looked at the warrant and said, "I know I didn't sign this warrant because my initials are not at the bottom of every page. It looks like my signature but I have no idea how it got there."

25. On September 1, 2015, Attorney Lisa Houlé again met with Judge Hall, and he confirmed that it is his regular practice to initial the bottom of every page of a warrant and expressed concern that his initials are not on the pages of the warrant for location #6.

26. On November 12, 2015, Judge Hall conducted an in camera review of the actual sealed warrants in criminal case LASC Case No. SA077354. As to the April 18, 2011 warrant (for locations 1-5), he found that the signature and other writings on the face of the warrant, the original sealing order, and the handwritten limitations on the property that could be seized were all in blue ink and appeared genuine. Each page of the warrant's description section, documentation, affidavits and exhibits bears Judge Hall's initials on or near the bottom right corner which are also in blue ink and appear to be genuine and consistent with Judge Hall's practice when reading and ruling on requests for issuance of warrants.

27. During the November 12, 2015, in camera review, Judge Hall also found that the April 27, 2011, search warrant (for location #6) appears to be an extension of the April 18, 2011, search warrant to a different address. As to this search warrant, the signature and other writing on the face of the warrant and the original sealing order are in blue ink and appear to be genuine. However, Judge Hall's initials do not appear on any of the pages of the description section, supporting documentation, which would be at odds with Judge Hall's practice. Moreover, the handwritten limitations in the description section of the April 18, 2011, search warrant, do not appear on the very similar April 27, 2011, search warrant. As the statement of probable cause in the April 27 2011, search warrant is essentially the same as and incorporates the statement of probable cause in the April 18, 2011, search warrant, Judge Hall would have imposed similar limitations on the scope of the authorized search. Judge Hall's Findings from the In Camera Review is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

28. It was not until the receipt of Judge Hall's findings on November 13, 2015 concerning his in camera inspection of the sealed warrants that Plaintiff had any reason to believe that Defendants had wrongfully executed a modified warrant to illegally seize Plaintiff's property. As such, no reasonable investigation of the facts would have or did reveal a factual basis for the causes of action that Plaintiff brings, and any statute of limitations had not begun to run or was tolled as a result of Defendants concealment of the modification of the search warrant for location #6, in violation of California law, and Plaintiff's rights under the California and Federal Constitutions.

29. Defendant Valdivia's actions as alleged above were committed "under color of law" and in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant the County. Defendant the County subsequently condoned and ratified Defendant Valdivia's actions. Alternatively, Defendant the County was grossly negligent in the recruitment, training, and management of Defendant Valdivia and that negligence proximately caused the injuries suffered by Plaintiff and alleged herein.

30. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants actions as herein alleged, Plaintiff has been damaged. Plaintiff suffered economic loses in that he lost the use of his property wrongly seized. He lost the value of the property seized and never returned. He lost the economic benefit of his work product as an investigating journalist. He lost income as an investigative journalist due to the interference with his First Amendment rights in that he was fearful to pursue his profession and other were fearful of confiding in him and otherwise working with him. Thus, his income as an investigative journalist was severely impaired. He also suffered general damages as a result of the tortious violations of his civil rights, including without limitation, the infliction of emotional distress that was both severe and enduring.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of 42 USC 1983 Against All Defendants

31. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

32. Defendants, all acting under color of authority, deprived Plaintiff of his rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the State and Federal Constitution, by executing or causing to be executed an unlawfully modified search warrant on Plaintiff's office and seizing his property and confidential investigative journalist work product all for the purpose of harassing Plaintiff to prevent or chill his exercise of his right of freedom of speech and freedom of the press as guaranteed in the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

33. Furthermore the County and the Bureau have policies and procedures that require that an investigation that resulted in the seizure of evidence pursuant to a search warrant be monitored periodically for proper disposition of the seized property. Despite this, Plaintiffs remained deprived of access to and use of his Property, even after the case was dismissed by the Los Angeles County District Attorney. Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey knew that the wrongful conduct of Defendant Valdivia created a substantial risk of harm to Plaintiffs, and Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey acquiesced to Defendant Valdivia's failures and Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey failed to take adequate action to ensure compliance with the applicable policies and procedures, so as to prevent the wrongful conduct that harmed Plaintiffs. The actions and inactions of Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey and Valdivia were substantial factors in causing Plaintiff's harm.

34. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's violation of 42 USC 1983 as alleged herein, Plaintiff has been damaged as alleged herein above in paragraph 30. The exact amount of this damage is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

35. As a result of Defendants' tortious conduct as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer, general damages. The full amount of these damages is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

1 36. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, was wanton, willful, deliberate,
 2 and in conscious disregard of the rights and feelings of Plaintiff, was undertaken with the intent
 3 to cause Plaintiff injury and constitutes malice, actual, express and implied. Accordingly,
 4 Plaintiff is entitled to an award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum to be
 5 established at trial sufficient to deter future similar conduct.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Monell Claim) Unlawful Custom and Practice Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983

8 Against Defendant the County and the City

9 37. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

10 38. The County and the City are and at all times herein mentioned have been public
 11 entities duly authorized and existing as such in and under the laws of the State of California;
 12 and at all times herein mentioned, the County and the City possessed the power and authority to
 13 adopt policies and prescribe rules, regulations and practices affecting the operation of the 14 Bureau and the Department, respectfully, and their tactics, methods, customs, and usages related 15 to criminal investigations, and personnel supervision, among other things.

16 39. The County and the City knowingly and intentionally promulgated, maintained,
 17 applied, enforced, and continued policies, customs, practices and usages in violation of the First,
 18 Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment respectively to the United States Constitution, which 19 customs, practices, and usages at all times herein mentioned cause Plaintiff's harm.

20 40. The County and the City knowingly maintain and permit official sub-rosa
 21 policies and customs of permitting the occurrence of the kinds of wrongs set forth in this
 22 Complaint, despite such occurrences being in direct contravention of County and City policy
 23 and the Penal Code.

24 41. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of Defendants' violation of 42 USC
 25 1983 as alleged herein, Plaintiff has been damaged as alleged herein above in paragraph 30. The 26 exact amount of this damage is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to
 27 amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

The full amount of these damages is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

43. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, was wanton, willful, deliberate, and in conscious disregard of the rights and feelings of Plaintiff, was undertaken with the intent to cause Plaintiff injury and constitutes malice, actual, express and implied. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum to be established at trial sufficient to deter future similar conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence, Against Defendant Valdivia

44. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

45. The California Penal Code sets forth multiple mandatory, ministerial duties upon Peace Officers who seek, obtain and execute search warrants, for the purpose of providing notice to persons like Plaintiffs, who have had their property seized, so that they have the ability to challenge the seizure before the court.

46. By failing to return the unaltered search warrant for location #6 to the Los Angeles County Superior Court, along with its Statement of Probable Cause, Defendants prevented a public judicial record from being created of the actual warrant issued. Defendant Valdivia failed to do these things in violation of a statutory duty to do so. Defendant Valdivia breach of those duties, harmed, and damaged Plaintiff.

47. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's negligence as alleged herein, Plaintiff has been damaged as alleged herein above in paragraph 30. The exact amount of this damage is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

48. As a result of Defendants' tortious conduct as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer, general damages. The full amount of these damages is not

 6 Plaintiff is entitled to an award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum to be
 7 established at trial sufficient to deter future similar conduct.

8 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 Negligence, Against Defendant the County

10 50. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

11 51. Defendants the County, Cooley, Lacey owed a duty to Plaintiffs to ensure that the 12 mandatory ministerial provisions of the Penal Code, as well as Defendants' own internal policies,
 13 were complied with, as the Penal Code and Defendants' policies establish non-discretionary 14 ministerial duties upon the Defendants, for the benefit of persons like Plaintiffs. Defendant the 15 County was negligent for failing to ensure that its own internal policies and various mandatory
 16 Penal Code provisions were complied with by its employee, Defendant Valdivia.

17 52. Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey failed to implement adequate
 18 procedural safeguards to prevent the violations of Plaintiffs' rights, and were deliberately 19 indifferent to Plaintiffs' rights, despite having policies in place to prevent such violations.
 20 Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey negligently oversaw the actions of Defendant Valdivia
 21 and Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey failed to properly supervise Defendant Valdivia, 22 to ensure that Valdivia was in compliance with the County and the Bureau's internal policies, as 23 well as the the Penal Code's mandatory provisions that are for the benefit of Plaintiffs. Had 24 Defendants the County, Cooley and Lacey acted to ensure compliance with its internal policies, 25 the violation of Plaintiffs' rights would have been prevented. As a result of Defendants the 26 County, Cooley and Lacey's failure to ensure compliance with its internal policies and the Penal 27 Code, and to properly supervise Defendant Valdivia, Plaintiff was harmed.

55. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, was wanton, willful, deliberate, and in conscious disregard of the rights and feelings of Plaintiff, was undertaken with the intent to cause Plaintiff injury and constitutes malice, actual, express and implied. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum to be established at trial sufficient to deter future similar conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress Against All Defendants

56. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

57. Defendants owed Plaintiffs a duty of care pursuant to the State and Federal Constitutions, various Penal Code sections, as well as County's and City's internal policies that were promulgated to protect the rights of persons like Plaintiff.

58. Defendants breached those duties, and Defendants' conduct was outrageous. As a result of the breach, Defendants directly damaged Plaintiff, who suffered emotional distress. Plaintiff suffered emotional distress including but not limited to fear, apprehension, nervousness, shock, humiliation for apparently being investigated for a crime he did not commit, loss of sleep, anxiety, financial anxiety, worry and other emotional distress according to proof. In addition, Defendant Valdivia's actions and manner of investigating Plaintiff for a crime he did not commit caused Plaintiff to be fearful of pursuing his profession as an investigative journalist.

59. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's negligence as alleged herein, Plaintiff has been damaged as alleged herein above in paragraph 30. The exact amount of

1 this damage is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this
 2 complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

3 60. As a result of Defendants' tortious conduct as alleged above, Plaintiff has
 4 suffered, and will continue to suffer, general damages. The full amount of these damages is not
 5 currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon
 6 ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

7 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Bane Act Violation, Cal. Civil Code 52.1, Against All Defendants

9 61. Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1-30 above, as if fully restated herein.

10 62. Defendants injured Plaintiff or his property to prevent Plaintiff from exercising 11 his right to free speech and freedom of the press, or Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff for 12 having exercised his right to free speech and freedom of the press in violation of the Bane Act, 13 California Civil Code section 52.1.

14 63. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's violation of the Bane
 15 Act as alleged herein, Plaintiff has been damaged as alleged herein above in paragraph 30. The 16 exact amount of this damage is not currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to
 17 amend this complaint upon ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

18 64. As a result of Defendants' tortious conduct as alleged above, Plaintiff has
 19 suffered, and will continue to suffer, general damages. The full amount of these damages is not
 20 currently known to Plaintiff, who will seek leave of court to amend this complaint upon
 21 ascertaining the precise amount of said damages.

22 65. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, was wanton, willful, deliberate,
 23 and in conscious disregard of the rights and feelings of Plaintiff, was undertaken with the intent
 24 to cause Plaintiff injury and constitutes malice, actual, express and implied. Accordingly,
 25 Plaintiff is entitled to an award of exemplary damages against Defendants, in a sum to be
 26 established at trial sufficient to deter future similar conduct.

FINDINGS FROM IN CAMERA REVIEW

The court has unsealed and reviewed the search warrants and their supporting documents, affidavits, and exhibits. The file in this matter contains two separate search warrants, one dated April 18, 2011, and the other dated April 27, 2011, under the same search warrant number.

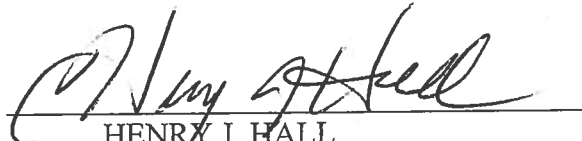

As to the April 18, 2011, search warrant, the signature and other writing on the face of the warrant, the original sealing order, and the handwritten limitations on what could be searched found on pages four and five of the "description" section, are in blue ink and appear to be genuine. Each page of this warrant's supporting "description" section, documentation, affidavits, and exhibits bears the court's initials, which are also in blue ink and appear to be genuine, on or near the bottom right corner, which is this court's practice when reading and ruling on requests for the issuance of search warrants.

The April 27, 2011, search warrant appears to be an extension of the April 18, 2011, search warrant to a different address. As to this April 27, 2011, search warrant, the signature and other writing on the face of the warrant and the original sealing order are in blue ink and appear to be genuine. However, the court's initials do not appear on any of the pages of the "description" section, supporting documentation, which would be at odds with this court's practice. Moreover, the handwritten limitations in the "description" section of the April 18, 2011, search warrant, do not appear on the very similar April 27, 2011, search warrant. As the statement of probable cause in the April 27, 2011, search warrant is essentially the same as and incorporates the statement of probable cause in the April 18, 2011, search warrant, this court would have imposed similar limitations on the scope of the authorized search.

The search warrant and the supporting documents, affidavits, and exhibits are ordered resealed subject to an order from this or any other competent court.

Dated this 12th day of November, 2015.

HENRY J. HALL
Judge of the Superior Court
